

11 WILLIAM J. WHITSITT,
12 Plaintiff,
13 v.
14 TESLA MOTORS, et al.,
15 Defendants.

Case No. 3:16-cv-00797-LB

ORDER

17 The court finds that the plaintiff has shown good cause in his filing at ECF No. 14 for his 18 failure to provide the addresses for the defendants; the court thus discharges the order to show
19 cause at ECF No. 13.¹ The court grants the plaintiff's motion to amend the complaint to correct
20 errors in the defendants' names, which means that the named defendants are as follows: 1) Tesla
21 Motors, Inc., 2) M.B. Tesla Motors, Inc., 3) West Valley Staffing Group, and 4) 25 unnamed
22 defendants.² The court directs the Clerk to amend the defendants' names on the docket sheet.

23 The remaining issue is the service address for the defendants. The plaintiff must provide that 24 address within 21 days. As the court explained before, the U.S. Marshal cannot serve the

1 complaint without the addresses, and if there is no service, the case cannot go forward.³

2 The court will serve a copy of this order by mail to Mr. Whitsitt's address and send a courtesy
3 copy to the email that is reflected on the docket sheet. The court reminds Mr. Whitsitt that the 4 court has a help desk for people who are representing himself and attaches another copy of the 5 Help Center's flyer. The court previously sent Mr. Whitsitt a copy of the flyer and the district
6 court's Handbook for Litigants Without a Lawyer.⁴

7 To avoid losing track of the case, the court resets the initial case-management conference for 8 October 13, 2016, at 11 a.m.

9 IT IS SO ORDERED.
